

The British Horse Society Scotland, The Donkey Sanctuary, World Horse Welfare, SSPCA and the Scottish Government present an

EQUINE WELFARE CONFERENCE

Highlighting the welfare challenges facing Scotland's equines

Conference Chairman – Professor Derek Knottenbelt, Chairman, BHS Scotland

PROGRAMME

- 0930 Registration, Tea and Coffee
- 1015 Welcome – Professor Derek Knottenbelt, Chairman, BHS Scotland
- 1030 Horses in our Hands – Roly Owers, Chief Executive, World Horse Welfare
- 1100 One Health & Biosecurity for Horses and People – Dominic Mellor, Professor of Epidemiology and Veterinary Public Health, University of Glasgow
- 1130 Role of SSPCA in Equine Welfare – Heather Lawson, Inspector, SSPCA
- 1200 View from the CVOs Office – Sheila Voas, CVO, Scottish Government
- 1230 Q&A Morning Sessions
- 1300 Lunch – buffet lunch provided
- 1400 How Equines Use Shelter – Faith Burden, Head of Research & Pathology, The Donkey Sanctuary
- 1430 Donkeys are Different – Anna Harrison, Welfare Veterinary Surgeon, The Donkey Sanctuary – includes practical session
- 1530 Q&A Afternoon Sessions
- 1600 Closing Comments – Professor Derek Knottenbelt, Chairman, BHS Scotland

Price: £30

The British Horse Society Scotland, The Donkey Sanctuary, World Horse Welfare, SSPCA and the Scottish Government present an

EQUINE WELFARE CONFERENCE

Highlighting the welfare challenges facing Scotland's equines

on Friday 28th April 2017
at Howe Equestrian Centre, Arnot Acres, Giffordtown, Fife KY15 7UW

Name

Organisation/Local Authority

Address

.....

.....

Tel. No

Email

Price: £30
concessions available

Number of tickets required.....

Counts as equine CPD for Scottish Animal Health and Trading Standards Officers

Please forward completed application form and enclose cheque payment to:

BHS Scotland, Woodburn Farm, Crieff, Perthshire PH7 3RG

Cheques payable to 'BHS Scotland'

Pay by cheque or BACS

Ticket, coffee and lunch included

Sort code 83-17-20 Acc No 00157213 RBS